Clemson College, S. C., March 26, 1906.

The Faculty:

- The Examination Committee begs to report that it has examined carefully the records of the following students in the Senior Class, who have failed badly on the work of the session: Coles, Jones, Derrick, Brunson, Cherry, Ervin, Jacobs and Pollitzer, and would make the following recommendations:
- I That all of these students except Mr. Pollitzer, together with all other seniors who have failures, be granted reexaminations on the subjects in which they are deficient.
 - II That Mr. Pollitzer be not granted reexaminations, on account of his large number of senior failures and his failure to make up sophomore work in which he is deficient. (Physiology & Surveying)
 - III That Messrs. Coles and Cherry be warned by the President of the necessity of for more earnest application to insure their graduation.
 - IV That Mr. Jones be required to drop all work other than his class work, and that he be urged to apply himself as earnestly as possible to his studies.
 - V That reexaminations for seniors be held during the week preceding the work devoted to the regular Senior examinations, and that seniors who fail on reexaminations be not allowed to take the regular 3rd term examinations.

P. J. Prodie,
Chair. Exam. Com.

schedule was refused.

The request of Cadet A. V. Bether for a re-examination on chemistry was refused. His request for an examination on military science was referred to Capt. Gay with power to act.

The programme of the meeting of the Association of Colleges^{S.C.} was read, and received as information.

The chairman of committee on examinations submitted the attached report, with recommendations, on the standing of the following seniors: Cales, Jones, Verrick, Branson, Cherry, Erwin, Jacobs and Pollitzer. It was proposed by Mr. Riggs that there should be, at least, three days between the two sets of examinations. This amendment was accepted, but the acceptance of the report was postponed until the next meeting.
